Course Description:

Explores a range of theories and methods which situate art in its historical context, from the more traditional methods associated with formal analysis and connoisseurship (formalist, biographical, and iconographic) to more recent theoretical approaches (such as semiotics, feminism, psychoanalysis, deconstruction, Foucault). Students examine a variety of texts as strategies for determining and analyzing different theories and methods, and their application to visual examples with a focus on the twentieth century: situating the modern and postmodern precursors to art of the twenty-first century.

Pre-requisites and/or Co-requisites: MA Art History and Visual Culture students only

Aims and Objectives:

- To introduce students to the history of thinking in art history
- To explore and engage critically with the theories and methods art historians have used to examine art
- To examine a variety of examples of Western art in context
- To analyse the representation of Western art in museums and galleries
- To develop visual literacy including formal analysis
- To engage critically with texts and objects
