Course Description: This course introduces key thinkers, topics, case studies and theoretical frameworks related to the field of cultural studies. Students will be exposed to different toolkits for analysing everyday cultural practices, with a particular focus on historical, geographical and personal identity. Films, fashion, art, graphic design, video, music and other media objects will be analysed in order to engage with the theoretical frameworks presented. In addition to in-class theoretical discussion, students are encouraged to apply cultural theory in practice, through activities including gallery visits and first-hand explorations of consumerist practices.

Prerequisites: COM 4200 or AVC 4205

Aims and Objectives:

This course aims to engage students in a focused analysis of selected cultural theories that have developed throughout the 20th century up through today. Students will be encouraged to generate detailed uses of these theories to investigate spaces, locations and identities. Methods of cultural analysis and interpretation will be developed alongside written and oral presentation skills.

Programme Outcomes :

5A(ii); 5A(iii); 5B(ii); 5B(iii); 5C(i); 5C(ii); 5D(ii)

A detailed list of the programme outcomes are found in the Programme Specification.

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, successful students should be able to:

- Exhibit detailed understanding of how key concepts in cultural theory evolved historically and in response to changes in media forms and industry practices.
- Demonstrate detailed comprehension and critical engagement with well-established and emergent debates and issues in the development of these theories.
- Apply theories to the study of cultural texts in a competent and engaged manner that shows a detailed understanding of how media consumption is embedded in everyday life, and the relationship between discourse, culture and identity.
- With limited supervision and following required format, brief and deadline, demonstrate ability to formulate and synthesize cogent arguments from the field of cultural studies, referencing sources and ideas appropriately.
